Membership Report

Dawne Jarrett reported that we have 100 members paid, and three pending.

Training Report

- According to Dawn Clausius, we have 75 people registered for June 5's First Friday's Training, and people are still calling to sign up.
- The Crime Mapping class scheduled for July 20-24 is full. The Problem Solving class being held at Platte County September 21-25 has 8 people registered so far. We decided that the first five MARCAN members who register and ask for the discount, will get $100 off the class fee.
- If you want to test for certification during our Conference in August, you should be preparing now. Contact Michelle Kennedy or Susan for an application, and contact Carol for the $150 fee.

Old Business

Lisa McMullen reported that the Conference schedule is nearly complete.

New Business

- Don't forget to apply for the MARCAN scholarship if you're interested in attending the IACA Conference.
- Chris Bruce has advised that no one has applied for the $2,000 Corona Solutions Scholarship for the IACA Conference. The requisite is to do a write-up regarding an innovation in your agency for which you're responsible.
- Susan said that the 2nd edition of "IACA Essential Skills" is now available.

The meeting was adjourned at 1153 hours.
